Mackorell's.

—Mrs. T. C. Hicks visited her father's family at Blackstock this week.

—Mrs. Albert Betts and little daughters of Hope, Ark., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. L. C. Payseur, at this place.

—For Rent.—One mile North of Pleasant Hill—four, three, two or one horse farms. Apply at this office.

—Next Thursday, Nov. 26, is Thanksgiving day. The graded school, post-office, bank, and all places of business here will close on that day as has been the custom for a number of years.

—200 lbs fine goose feathers at 50c per pound. L. C. Payseur.

—Letters advertised as remaining in the post office at Lancaster uncalled for for the week ending Nov. 7, 1903 are as follows: Miss Cornelia Clinton, Mrs. Sallie McMullen, Mr. McMurea, J. G. Pool, G. J. King, L. H. Eaker, R. B. Boyte, Martin Culp.

Belle Nance, P. M.

—Rev. W. C. Ewart has accepted the call recently given him by the A. R. P. church of Yorkville. He will preach his farewell at Abbeville on the fourth Sabbath, instant, and will assume charge of the work at Yorkville by the first Sabbath in December.

—The Poag-Ferguson Machine Co., at Lancaster has been granted a commission by the Secretary of State. It is capitalized at $6,000, and will sell machinery and conduct a repair shop. The incorporators are J. L. Poag, A. B. Ferguson, W. T. Gregory and L. C. Lazenby.

—Mrs. D. W. Catoe, of the Longville section, has been adjudged insane, and will be taken to the State hospital in Columbia this week. It is hoped under the skilled treatment of the physicians there that she can soon be restored and returned in her right mind to the husband and three little children she leaves at home.

—Mr. Jas. H. Williams, the local treasurer of the Royal Arcanum at Monroe, will pay today to Mrs. Nancy C. Stewart, widow of the late John Millen Stewart, $3,000, the amount of the policy Mr. Stewart held in that order.—Monroe Journal.

Ask your Minister about "Fewer gallons; wears longer."

—The Tabernacle camp of the Woodmen of the World met last Friday night. The camp has received its supplies, and the following officers were installed: Consul commander, Rev. W. C. Winn; adviser lieutenant, R. E. Sharp; banker, H. W. Taylor; clerk, A. C. Rowell; escort, Emanuel Carnes; camp physician, Dr. W. H. Sapp; managers, P. L. Funderburk, W. P. Plyler, D. R. Williams; watchman, M. Yarborough; Sentry, R. M. Yarborough. We have a handsome little camp of 23 members, and the prospects are for good work. It will not be a great while before it will rival the standing of a "much more aged camp." The district organizer, E. F. Bell, Sr., was with the camp Friday night, and is highly pleased with it.—R. E. S. in Enterprise.

Death of Mr. Joseph M. Caskey.

The news of the death of Mr. Joseph M. Caskey will be learned with deep regret by his many friends throughout the county. He died at his home about 1 o'clock yesterday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Caskey was about 58 years of age and leaves his wife and three children surviving him. He was a member of Newhope Baptist church and was esteemed by all who knew him as a high-toned christian man. Honest, upright, kind-hearted and benevolent Lancaster county loses by his death one of her very best citizens. He served in the Confederate army, being in the company of boys which went into service under Capt. J. D. Caskey, and made a good soldier. He was elected county commissioner for one term by probably the largest vote ever given any man for that office in the county. For the past six years he has been keeper of the county home and has made a good and most efficient one. His remains were interred yesterday afternoon in Newhope churchyard, a large concourse of friends being present at the last sad rites.

Other Deaths.

Mrs. Della Porter, wife of Mr. Reece Porter of the Elgin section, died last Thursday evening after a very short illness. Mrs. Porter was a daughter of Mr. John Marshall and was only about 21 years of age. She was a bride of less than a year and her death is a sad one. She was a member of St. Luke Methodist church and a consistent christian lady. Her remains were interred yesterday afternoon in the grave-yard at St. Luke after funeral services by her pastor. The sorely bereft young husband has the deepest sympathy of his many friends in his sad bereavement.

—An infant child, aged about three weeks, of Mrs. June Raley, died at the home of its grandfather, Mr. H. J. Thompson, near O. K., where its mother was on a visit, last Wednesday evening and was interred at Camp Creek Baptist church on Thursday.

Items From Kershaw Era.

—Mr. J. Wylie Porter is moving this week to the cottage recently purchased by him from Mr. E. M. Estridge.

—Drs. E. C. Brasington and R. S. Beckham amputated the leg of Mr. J. C. Falkenberry last Wednesday morning.

—Nowhere in the State can a small town be found with prettier streets than Kershaw. Our progressive town authorities take a special pride in keeping the streets presentable.

—Mrs. Barfield, wife of Mr. J. S. Barfield, died at their home South of Kershaw last Thursday and was buried at Bethany church near Westville on Friday. Rev. D. C. Freeman conducted the services.

Removal of the Remains of President Monroe's Wife and Daughter.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The remains of Mrs. James Monroe, widow of the fifth president of the United States, and of their daughter, Mrs. Samuel Gouverneur, which were disinterred from their place near Leesburg, Va., and brought here last night, were taken in a private car over the Southern railway today to Richmond. A number of descendants of the Monroe family were on the train.

THE REINTERMENT.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 18.—The remains of the wife and daughter of President Monroe arrived here today and were this afternoon reinterred in Holly cemetery, where rest the remains of Monroe. The services were simple and impressive and were attended by representatives of various societies.

WELL PLEASED CUSTOMERS!

The Hundreds and Thousands of People who patronize our store are doing more to advertise our business than all the newspaper advertisements combined. They go away from our store perfectly satisfied, even delighted with the splendid values we have sold them, and it is very natural that they should speak about it to their friends and recommend them to come to us to supply their wants. Our business has had a steady and rapid growth from the beginning. The public has been impressed with our just and liberal way of doing business and it is remarkable the way the people have put their trust and confidence in a business established so short a time. We are endeavoring to prove worthy of that confidence and are very careful that everything we sell shall be of real merit and shall prove to be as good as represented.
